

BGV-D8

Hoist only to be used to move loads. Any operation above persons during moving and also in static position is strictly forbidden. After moving loads these must be secured by a secondary safety component and the hoist chain itself must be relieved from the load. See also British Standard BS 7906-1 Category B. Static suspension of loads, having secondary suspension via safety steel, inertia reel or load arrestor.